Dear Raphaela,

From the small-world dept.!

Having heard nothing from up there where there seems to be a Trappist monastery when my books finally came I started mailing them to those I believe could help. I'd mailed one to Sam Silver when your 4/22 came yesterday. He is a dear friend of my youth. Of a small group of us he and another friend who lived in the same block the Silver's did survive. After retirement in Florida when he left Stamford, some people down there got him to start the no longer new school and it is a big and ever-growing success. As any he'd lead would be almost certain to be.

I may have duplicated other mailings because I never got any word on any being sent and there are some who can get a little going. So I suppose some copies and some more of my time are wasted.

After many requests I've still not gotten any copy of any statement or announcement of either book I can include with inquiries about my books that I sell.

Yesterday I got a letter from a Los Angeles area friend, a Disney writer, who has been in free time going from bookstore to bookstore and has not yet seen it on sale.

He did not tell me where but he lives in Sherman Oaks and works in Burbank.

I have gotten a few excellent responses by mail and by phone. If I think of it I'll enclose a copy of one from a Canadian professor in yesterday's mail.

The Hollywood writer friend suggested, as perhaps you'll mention to Mooney, that on KABC ^{radio} there Michael Jackson has a talk show in the morning. I did that almost 30 years ago, all by phone. He still has an English accent.

Again thanks and love,

Harold
